

THE LONDON WELSH FESTIVAL OF MALE CHOIRS 2010

On Saturday 23rd October 2010, the London Welsh Male Voice Choir will present in the Royal Albert Hall the 22nd London Welsh Festival of Male Choirs. This biennial Festival has become recognised as one of the world's premier massed choral concerts.

The Conductor for this year's Festival will be Alwyn Humphreys. The accompaniment will be provided by the Cory Band, with Annabel Thwaite (piano) and Robert Nicholls (organ).

This year's principal soloists are two stars of the operatic firmament, David Kempster and Elizabeth Donovan. Our compère will be Frank Lincoln.

As always, demand for tickets may well exceed supply and seats cannot be guaranteed for all applicants. Boxes and Stalls seats may only become available if Royal Albert Hall seat holders return their tickets.

The Royal Albert Hall has now made it possible for less mobile members of the public to enjoy seats in the auditorium, as there are lifts to all levels. However, there is not wheelchair access to the Arena Seats.
